Raising the standard.

We tend to get a lot of business thanks to all the recommendations we receive from satisfied customers.

So we think it's only right that we say thanks to those customers with a reward.

If you recommend us to a friend, and they go on to place an order with us, we'll say thank you with a big cash reward. The value of the reward depends on the order your friends place, but it can be a sizeable amount. And, because there's no limit to the number of people you can recommend, the rewards can soon add up. Take a look at the table below to see what you could earn.

If you're happy to pass on our name, we'll happily reward you for doing so.

We work tirelessly to ensure all our customers are happy with their home improvement.

If you think you know someone who would appreciate our wide range of products, great prices and superb service, let us know. Simply tell us who they are, and providing they are not an Anglian employee, we'll send you your reward on completion of their installation.
